

Wednesday, August 24, 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Creature Feature – Meet the Animals Living Under the Sea
 Widow's Hole Preserve, end of Fourth Street, Greenport

Join us for a seaside beach seining and explore marine life in Greenport Harbor. Educators from the NY State DEC will present information about these creatures before pulling the seine net to shore. Get up close with fish, small crabs, shrimp, and other creatures – you never know who you're going to meet!
All attendees must wear water shoes to protect feet and be prepared to get wet. FREE! All ages welcome. Rain cancels.

Friday, August 26, 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.
Sunset Paddle and Picnic
 Launch at Bridge Lane, Sagaponack

Bring your picnic and join us for a relaxing 1-mile paddle across Sag Pond, led by wildlife biologist Mike Bottini. Enjoy the natural beauty of conserved farms and pristine wetlands, protected with the help of the Trust, as we paddle across to the beach, pull up the boats, and enjoy conversation over your picnic. Learn about plants and wildlife from Mike along with stories of nearby land conserved by the Trust, then paddle back by the light of the full moon.
$10/person, limited space available, pre-paid registration required. Rentals available for additional fee. Rain cancels.

Saturday, August 27, 3:00 – 5:00 p.m.
Making and Enjoying Kimchi
 Bridge Gardens, 36 Mitchell Lane, Bridgehampton

Kimchi, made from vegetables and fermented over time, is a wonderfully healthy addition to your table, and can be enjoyed right away or stored to ferment for months. Either way, making it is easy and fun. Join us for this workshop, led by community gardener Justin Ruaysamran and Garden Director Rick Bogusch. You'll learn the easy steps to creating and enjoying your own kimchi and receive recipes to take home. For this hands-on workshop, bring your own quart-sized jar and a large spoon.
$20/person, $10/Bridge Gardens members. Space is limited, prepaid reservations required. Rain or shine.

Connections

Events & Activities Calendar – July thru August 2022

The Peconic Land Trust conserves Long Island's working farms, natural lands, and heritage for our communities now and in the future.

Wednesday, July 6, 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Paint Out with Artists of The Wednesday Group
 Bridge Gardens, 36 Mitchell Lane, Bridgehampton

Take time to visit Bridge Gardens today and meet the talented artists of The Wednesday Group! Artists will be on site all day, sketching, painting, and photographing the beauty of the garden. Finished art will be on display and for sale at the July 29 Members-Only Music Night, with a percentage of profits supporting Bridge Gardens.

For information on membership to Bridge Gardens, please visit our website, www.PeconicLandTrust.org. Rain date is Thursday, July 7.

Friday, July 8, 3:00 – 5:00 p.m.
Gardens With a Sense of Place
 Winds Way Farm, Main Bayview Road, Jamesport

Join Nancy Gilbert and Richard Wines for a walk at Winds Way Farm where a tapestry of plantings interact with farm fields, woods, the shores of Peconic Bay and historic buildings. Learn what two gardeners have done over twenty years to create gardens rich in context, personal vision, and spirit. They will share both the pleasure and challenges of creating gardens that feel genuinely rooted in a particular piece of earth, gardens that communicate a sense of place. End your visit with a toast to summer in their 1872 one room schoolhouse!

$20/person, space is limited, prepaid reservations required. Rain cancels.

You make this all possible!

Our Connections programs are educational experiences that are coordinated by the Trust in unison with many local partners. We invite you to experience, enjoy and share the land that was preserved through our collective conservation efforts.

Join us.
